

HIPPO Document Analysis

Historical Context: What was going on when this document was written? How does this affect the message of the author? How does this help you better understand the document?

Intended Audience: Identify a person or group the author expects to inform or influence. How does this impact the author's/authors' message?

Point of View: Who is the author? How did the author's background (gender, race, socioeconomic status, position, experiences, etc.) impact their written perspective?

Purpose: Why did the author create the source?

Outside Information: What specific historical information outside of the document can you connect to the document? How does it better help you better understand the document?